

OBJECT DELIVERY ROBOT

The line follower concept is interface with this robot to deliver the object to the correct destination . The objective of the line following robot is to follow the line on its given path which is identified using IR sensors to detects the line and then controls the working of the wheel's . Microcontroller controls the other operation.